A five-day transformational camp aimed at supporting victims of substance abuse was successfully conducted from June 16th to 20th at Agape Camping Centre, Durtlang. The event was organized by Mission Foundation Movement (MFM) in partnership with India Collaboration, with the goal of providing a safe and supportive environment for healing and personal growth.

The camp brought together 40 participants who remained engaged from beginning to end. The programme was designed not only to address the physical aspects of addiction through detoxification, but also to provide emotional and spiritual support through counseling sessions and guided reflections.

MFM Director R. Vanlalzaupa, along with Chicco Renthle and Christian Omoma, served as the main speakers throughout the camp. In addition to therapeutic sessions, the camp also featured various recreational activities aimed at promoting team-building, mental well-being, and a renewed sense of joy. Participants expressed gratitude for the life-changing experience and the opportunity to start a new chapter in their lives.

EXEC. DIR. ATTENDED STAKEHOLDER CONSULTATION ON INDIA'S NATIONAL ADAPTATION PLAN (NAP)

MFM Executive Director attended The Stakeholder Consultation on India's National Adaptation Plan (NAP) held in New Delhi on 30th June. Participants underscored the urgent need to integrate poverty alleviation with climate resilience by drawing on traditional knowledge and community-led approaches, while ensuring inclusive financing and strong institutional coordination. The discussion reaffirmed a shared commitment to bolstering the resilience of India's most vulnerable rural and tribal populations, especially women on the front lines of climate impacts.

As India moves towards finalizing its National Adaptation Plan, the insights and recommendations emerging from stakeholder consultations are set to play a crucial role in shaping the Poverty Alleviation and Livelihoods chapter of the plan. These consultations have emphasized the urgent need to place vulnerable communities—especially those residing in remote and underserved regions—at the forefront of the nation's climate resilience strategies.

In this context, the Mission Foundation Movement (MFM) is poised to take on a significant role in the state of Mizoram, particularly in the areas of poverty alleviation and livelihood promotion. With its longstanding commitment to empowering tribal and rural communities, MFM is expected to contribute meaningfully to the implementation of locally-driven, climate-resilient livelihood initiatives that align with the broader goals of sustainable development and environmental justice.
