SUCCESS STORY

A young girl named Lalpekhui, from Bughmun Village. At the age of 17, she was found staying at Buannel's Orphanage Home, longing for a brighter future

With determination and enthusiasm, Lalpekhui embarked on her training journey at Jan Shikshan Sansthan. She absorbed every lesson, honing her skills in dressmaking and learning the intricacies of the craft. Her dedication and hard work impressed her instructors, who praised her natural talent and eagerness to learn.

Upon completing her training, Lalpekhui's newfound expertise opened doors for her in the fashion industry. She was offered a position as an assistant to the renowned dress designer, Miss Nancy Malsawmdawngkimi who was also the job-role instructor itself. Thrilled by this opportunity, Lalpekhui eagerly accepted the role, knowing that it would propel her towards her dreams.

Now 18 years old, Lalpekhui is financially independent as an assistant dress maker and stayed out from the orphanage home and is on her way to achieved her dreams of becoming successful Dress Maker.
